SPECIAL CIRCULAR

Com. M. MOHAMED GHOUSE SUB-STAFF COMMITTEE MEMBER, SALEM SUB-OFFICE

Com. Mohamed Ghouse fondly called as Ghouse, one of the senior most members in the Central Committee who is known for his loyalty to the Union is laying down his position, consequent upon his retirement from Bank's service on 28th February 2022.

Com. Ghouse started his career in the Bank as temporary messenger in the year 1983 and was made permanent in September 1986 at Neyveli branch. He was promoted as duftry in 1991, Head Messenger in 1996 and finally as Senior Head Messenger in 2010. Incidentally, he has served only at Neyveli branch during his entire period of service in the Bank.

Com. Ghouse has been an ardent member of the Union ever since he joined the Bank. He had been the Sub-Staff Committee Member of Neyveli branch during the period 1986-2004. When a vacancy arose in Tiruchirappalli Sub-Office in the year 2004 for Sub-Staff Central Committee Member, he became the unanimous choice for the position. He continued to hold the position unchallenged for more than 17 years, a rare feat to be achieved. He became synonymous with the Union in Neyveli area because of his spirited involvement in all the affairs of the Union.

Com. Ghouse has an innate instinct to help others and this sterling quality prompted others to turn to him in times of difficulty. He was indeed a friend in need to all our members in Neyveli and the surrounding branches. He was a skillful negotiator too. With his persuasive approach and practical intelligence he always succeeded in mobilizing the support of his colleagues in issues relating to the welfare and benefit of our members. Through his unceasing efforts he got things done for the members. For the sub-staff members of his module, he was the guiding star.

Com. Ghouse had never missed an opportunity to speak for the welfare of sub-staff comrades in the Central Committee Meetings of our Union. He had been continuously voicing for renovation of SBI Staff Quarters in Neyveli and sub-staff promotions. He had a knack of representing issues in witty manner.

In the members meet of Zone XXIV and XXV held at Neyveli on 20th February 2022, a fitting farewell was given to Com Ghouse in the presence of our President, the undersigned and galaxy of Office Bearers from Head Quarters and Module. It was also attended by huge gathering of Unit Secretaries and activists, Veterans and valiant comrades. The members meet with the felicitation function of Com Ghouse was a grand success.

At domestic front, Com. Ghouse leads a contented life. His spouse, Smt. Asrafunisa Begum is a home maker and holds a bachelor degree in Homeopathy and Acupuncture. They are blessed with two sons. Both are married and well settled. The elder son, Shri.M.D.Parvez is an engineer and runs his own business. The younger son, Shri. M.D. Muzammil is a MBBS doctor specialized in emergency medicine. He is a proud grandfather of three grand children.

Com. Ghouse has proved his worthiness to the Union through his dedicated and selfless service with loyalty, fortitude and perseverance. SBSU (CC) extends its gratitude to Com. Ghouse for everything and wishes him peace, good health and long life.

LONG LIVE COM. GHOUSE... LONG LIVE...
